NANAIMO MEN'S CENTRE LOOKING FOR MORE
DIVORCED OR SEPARATED STUDY VOLUNTEERS

NANAIMO, BC (February 7, 2008) – The Nanaimo Men's Resource Centre is seeking more volunteers to participate in a special research study on divorce and separation which is being done through the Community Research Lab at Malaspina University - College.

The Community Research Lab in the Psychology Department at Malaspina University – College is conducting research looking into the experiences of divorced and separated men and women. Participants who volunteer will be interviewed and asked to fill out a questionnaire. The study was initiated last year, but more volunteers are required to complete the study.

If you are interested in participating in this research study, please contact: the Divorce and Separation Lab at 740-6187 or email: divorce@mala.bc.ca or contact John Westwood at the Nanaimo Men's Resource Centre at 716-1551.

The Nanaimo Men's Resource Centre is a non-profit organization offering support, referral and educational services to men and their families. The centre promotes community awareness of men's needs and provides programs for individuals and groups. Information and programs are available for divorce and separation, domestic violence, anger management, legal support, family maintenance, parental alienation and personal growth.
