Finances after Separation invites professionals and separating couples alike to examine a new approach to separation and divorce. Individuals can take a number of steps to avoid falling into a costly, adversarial legal process. Mr. Welbanks discloses some of these steps based on his 28-year career with the Province of British Columbia. His straightforward guide takes a fresh look at the vast and varied modern financial landscape. It discusses the numerous considerations that may assist separating families to achieve complete financial rebirth.

Douglas P. Welbanks is the former Director of Debt Collection and Debtor Assistance for the Province of British Columbia.

Please bring your questions to what promises to be an informative evening. This is a free event open to the public, so come early to reserve your seat. Pay parking is available on the street or under the library (entrance off Hamilton Street). Books signed by the author will be available for purchase.
